

	Interests	Business
CC 1 The Ice Breaker (4 – 6 min) To introduce yourself to your Club CC 2 Organise Your Speech (5 - 7) Strong opening, body and conclusion CC 3 Get to the Point (5 - 7) Ensure a purpose and a point CC 4 How to Say It (5 - 7) Use right words clearly and vividly CC 5 Your Body Speaks (5 - 7) User movement, gestures, facial expressions and eye contact CC 6 Vocal Variety (5 - 7) Volume, pitch to reflect and add meaning and interest. CC 7 Research Your Topic (5 - 7) Support points through research CC 8 Get Comfortable with Visual Aids (5 - 7) (PPoint and prop) CC 9 Persuade with Power (5 - 7) Persuade to take some action. Appeal to the audience's interests, with a Call to Action! CC 10 Inspire Your Audience (8-10) To inspire audience. Appeal to the audience's needs and emotions, using stories, anecdotes and quotes to add drama.

Topics Once you have a list of possible topics imagine how you could do each topic in each style of speaking assignment ... Some will fit better than others. Looking at each topic you will find some work better as a specific style (e.g. Body language) than another. This allows you to chose the best topic for the assignment. So how would you speak about cooking (a hobby) as a cc1, cc3, cc5 etc ...